

Skill		Tactics	Fitness	Evaluating Performance	Leadership
999 950 900	Exceptional application and delivery in their performance	Exceptional understanding and application in their performance	The student shows exceptional scores consistently and application of components	Exceptional understanding of themselves and others showing the ability to critically evaluate performance and plan ways to improve	Through exceptional leadership the students is able to motivate all individuals they are leading showing empathy, and ensuring the best of everyone
899 850 800	Consistently selects and applies advanced skills, when faced with challenge, almost always being successful	Consistently applies and selects advanced tactics when faced with challenge, almost always being successful	The student has consistently excellent scores across the majority of tests and detailed understanding of the components	The student can critically evaluate performance and can articulate a programme to improve performance	Excellent leadership in all situations showing the ability to adapt their leadership to suit the person or group they are leading
799 750 700	Applies advanced skills with consistency in challenging situations	Applies and adapts more advanced tactics to suit challenging situations	Excellent scores across the majority of components	The student can suggest and differentiate drills that can be used to improve the prioritised weakness showing progression	The student can effectively lead their peers consistently in increasingly challenging situations
699 650 600	Applies advanced skills with precision	Applies and adapts tactics to suit challenging situations	Excellent scores across most tests with detailed explanation and application of components	The student can suggest individual drills that can be used to improve the prioritised weakness	The student can effectively lead their peers in pressured situations
599 550 500	Completing complex skills with control	Apply tactics and strategies in a pressured situations	Consistently very good scores with appropriate application of components	The student can identify and comprehensively explain all major strengths and weaknesses	The student can pre-plan and deliver focused sessions to a varied ability group
499 450 400	Developing complex skills	Can perform different positional roles with some success	Consistently good scores with some understanding of application of components	The student can suggest ways of improving performance	The student can lead larger groups, this includes teams during a game situation
399 350 300	Completes basic skills with control and consistency	Developing an understanding of different tactics	Achieves good scores occasionally in tests	The student can prioritise a weakness and justify why	The student can demonstrate leadership skill sin a small group
299 250 200	Completes basic skills with some control and consistency	Shows some understanding of positional roles	Demonstrates average scores in various tests	The student can explain the impact of basic strengths and weaknesses	The student can suggest ways of solving problems/tasks leading a small group
199 150 100	Completes basic skills with some control	Can apply basic principles of attack & defence	Demonstrates average scores for tests occasionally	The student can identify basic strengths and weaknesses of a performance	The student can suggest ways of solving problems/tasks communicating effectively
99	Attempts skills with some success	Understands basic concepts of the game	Completes fitness tests Has a basic level of CV fitness	Student can explain the skills used in different sports	The student can explain situations in which certain leadership characteristics are needed
50	Attempts skills with minimal success	Can demonstrate the basic rules of the game	Attempts with minimal success	The student can describe some skills	The student can describe what makes a good leader
1	Attempts skills	Understands the basic rules of the game	Attempts fitness tests	The student can name the skills required for different sports	The student can explain the importance of leadership in sport

