Dear Parent/Carer

National Careers Week 7th -12th March 2022

Fearnhill School is looking forward to Celebrating National Careers Week next week. Please read the following as a guide to how National Careers Week can support your young person/people both now and in the future through the world of Careers Education. Explore the activities and resources available and open the doors to the amazing opportunities that lie ahead.

We recognise that a lot of young people and families may be experiencing feelings of worry or uncertainty around future careers and how career opportunities will be affected by the pandemic, and what that might mean for the future of young people. We want to encourage families to have conversations about careers and the future and you can make a start by supporting young people to start exploring, spark their curiosity and build hope for their future by talking about careers during National Careers Week.

We have some resources to help. These can be found on <https://ncw2022.co.uk/>

- Information on many careers from over 40 National organisations, including our supporters the Natwest Group and NHS Health Careers.
- An online virtual careers fair
- A short 'Believe' film, created to support young people to imagine and believe in their potential
- Activities for both primary and secondary school students.
- A short 'Hope' film with stress and wellbeing resources. This features young people talking about their hopes and anxieties for the future. Wellbeing advice and practical tips on managing feelings of stress is provided by GP and broadcaster Dr Radha Modgil.
- plus more activities to be introduced throughout the week

We hope that you will join in this year. You can link up with other families, schools, colleges, universities, careers companies and businesses celebrating careers by using #NCW2022 on social media. Go explore....

Yours faithfully
