

Overview

In this topic, students will explore physical theatre and improvisation through the story telling of a plane crash and desert survival.

Assessment

Students will create a role play of a news report covering the rescue of survivors including interviews and re-enactments.

Keywords - gesture, facial expression, posture, movement, mime, voice, pace, pitch, tone

Knowledge & Skills

Improvisation - Spontaneous scene and character creation

Characterisation - Creating a character through use of voice and movement.

Physical Theatre - using abstract movement to create visual imagery.

Hot-Seating - Being questioned in role

Role-Play - Rehearsing and planning a scene in a situation or dilemma.

Cultural Capital Links

Use cross curricular links to Geography, PSHE and Dance.

Explore decision making, leaderships skills and survival techniques.

Develop an understanding of media chat shows, interview techniques and news reports.

